

A-G7 9 @ @ B9CI G'H9LH'fl 97 : cfa ' - - L

PAGE 1 / 2

August 29, 2012

Michelle Grant
Federal Election Commission
Washington D.C. 20463

Re: C00473736 Query Re Year-End Report (10/01/2011-12/31/2011)

1. Excessive Contributions from Committees: No excessive contributions were received from the PACs listed on this schedule. Our records show the following information

Honeywell International PAC4/15/11$5,000 .00General Debt 2010
Honeywell International PAC12/20/11$1,000.00P2012

KOCH PAC3/29/11$1,000.00P2012
KOCH PAC4/7/11$1,500.00P2012
KOCH PAC6/27/11$2,000.00P2012
KOCH PAC12/13/11$2,000.00G2012
KOCH PAC12/13/11$ 500.00P2012

The Freedom Project PAC3/31/11$5,000.00G2010
The Freedom Project PAC12/27/11$5,000.00P2012

The Home Depot Inc. PAC3/31/11$5,000.00P2012
The Home Depot Inc. PAC12/23/11$1,000.00G2012

The appropriate reports have been or will be amended to reflect the correct attribution

2.Schedule B has been amended to reflect more specificity on the consulting fees

3.Additional information has been added to Schedule B and the amended return has been filed.

4.Memo transactions have been added to the credit card disbursements to provide the detail of all of the transactions. The amended return has been filed.

5.None of the reimbursements to individuals for expenses other than travel were for amounts to original vendors that would exceed the $200.00 amount in aggregate.

6.None of the reimbursements to staff for expenses other than travel were for amounts to original vendors that would exceed the $500.00 amount in aggregate.

7.Various amendments of returns have corrected these issues.

8.Amended returns have corrected these issues.

9.Amended returns have corrected these issues.

10.Outstanding Debts are as listed on the amended return filed today.

11. The increases and decreases in disbursements, receipts and liabilities referenced in the various reporting periods

*****